Don't get me wrong, I love my ta ta's, but sometimes they do get jealous. Everyday, they see my twin teenage daughters flaunt the double dd's around the house and my ta ta's just don't understand. Maybe I can give them a gift to lift.

Seeing as I don't have a whole lot of money, during my VERY infrequent bra shops I am forced to choose one of the following:

1. Sexy
2. Comfortable.

Sadly, since I have to wear these things every day, comfort wins over cleavage.

With this product, I could keep my everyday comfortable bras and still entice my husband with sexy cleavage!

Also, the last nice, sexy bra I treated myself to... the dog chewed it up. :(

What a genius idea! I would love one of these. I would love to see it worn as outerwear too, what with all the lingerie-as-outerwear stuff on the catwalks at the moment.

I'd

- wear it underneath tight tops
- wear it over layered vests
- wear it over a black based floral dress and leggings

I think it has a hundred possibilities!

The OVERBRA would be an essential part of my fall wardrobe because I'd wear it with anything and everything v-neck and low cut. I've never had cleavage unless I pressed my breasts manually together. This is just an absolute genius idea. Please pick me! Thanks for the contest! codisweepstakes2 (at) gmail.com

Okay slightly embarrassing but I started out with DD breasts, I then lost 41 lbs and now...well I'm not so much of a DD than I am a small C and although I have lost the weight I needed to lose and am proud of that fact...well I'm not as confident will my smaller less plump girls as I was with my bigger more voluptuous girls. I don't regret losing the weight at all because my health was at risk but man, I wish the girls would have stayed the same size!

I am trying to win this for my wonderful wife.
She could REALLY use this great product! Her "Girls" are a 40DDD and she always is complaining that "the girls are always laying down on the job" and she wishes they would "stand at attention" once in awhile.

All About Eve

EvesApples
A lingerista through and through, I've been addicted to finding gorgeous lingerie ever since I bought my first hideous training bra. If I'm not dreaming about lingerie, I'm perusing stores for it, seeking it online or designing it. I just can't get enough! After spending years in the fashion industry, I know

B The bigger the billboard, the more sales you make, right?
Did I mention that she works in an office with over 50 other women who all love to sit and jaw every lunch hour?
